BROKERAGE GIVES AWAY $50,000

EChoice Home Loans has given away $50,000 to the lucky winner of their Facebook competition. The competition, which was jointly sponsored with realestate.com.au, asked 3,300 entrants to determine various 'mystery properties' featured on the property website. A 36 year old mother of two, Chloe Dresden, took home the cash prize and said she would spend the money on giving her home a "facelift". According to EChoice, the majority of the competition's contestants said they would use the $50,000 on a home deposit of renovations.
